

Django main Project Details

1. User Roles:

Admin

Job Seeker

Employer/Recruiter

2. User Authentication:

Registration and login functionality for all user types.

1. Login Form:

The login form should include standard fields such as:

Username or Email

Password

2. Registration Form: During registration, users should provide essential information such as:

Full Name

username

Email

Password

User Type (Job Seeker or Employer/Recruiter)

3. Job Seeker Features:

Create and update a profile with personal and professional information. Upload and manage a resume. Search and view job listings. Apply to jobs with a resume and cover letter. Create a list for review and get the status of application

4. Employer/Recruiter Features:

Create and update a company profile. Post, edit, and delete job listings. View and manage job applications. Create a list of new job applications.

Job Posting Form for Employers:

When creating or editing a job listing, employers should have a comprehensive form that includes:

Job Title

Job Description

Required Qualifications

Desired Qualifications

Responsibilities

Application Deadline

Salary Range

Location Employment Type (Full-time, Part-time, Contract, etc.)

Company Benefits

How to Apply (Application instructions)

Any other relevant information

5. Admin Features:

Manage user accounts. Monitor and moderate job listings. Resolve disputes or issues reported by users. View analytics and reports on user activity.

6. Job Search and Filtering:

Implement a search functionality allowing users to search for jobs based on keywords, location, industry, etc. Filter and sort search results.